

In 2016, Greater Van Gogos celebrated our 10th anniversary along with the Grandmothers Campaign. We remain a network of dynamic women's groups that are devoted to the vow we made at the dawn of the Grandmothers to Grandmothers movement in 2006:

"We will not rest until they can rest."

WHO ARE WE?

Greater Van Gogos is a network of Grandmothers Campaign groups in Metro Vancouver, the Fraser Valley and the Sunshine Coast. Our members are diverse, engaged and united by our commitment to support the work of African grandmothers raising a generation of children orphaned by AIDS.

WHAT WE DO:

- Raise funds, limited only by our imaginations
- Increase awareness about the challenges and successes of grandmothers in Africa
- Build solidarity between African and Canadian grandmothers

Grandmothers in spirit welcome

African grandmothers are the centres of their communities. With few resources, they display astonishing reserves of love, courage, resilience and hope.

Grandmothers Campaign

The Campaign is an exceptional model of fundraising based on the principles of social justice. African grandmothers identify their needs and the Campaign responds.

THROUGH THIS SUPPORT, GRANDMOTHERS IN 15 AFRICAN COUNTRIES CAN ACCESS:

- Children's school fees & uniforms
- Adequate housing
- Skills training
- Home care visits
- Grief & trauma counselling
- Micro credit grants for income generation
